

Sarah McCarthy, 6028 S. Green st., to be examined. Charged with taking letters from mail box.

$50,000 damage suit filed against Pa Morton by J. W. Miller, reporter, for false arrest.

$20,000 paid for prize bull calf. Dairy farmers, Barrington, Ill., purchasers.

Chas. Anderson, 20, 1722 W. Fulton st., shot F. Denman, 206 W. Grand av., held.

Maurice Strickland, negro, arrested. Gunt toting.

E. C. Hagerman, Oak Park, claim office Chicago surface lines, missing. Shortage suspected.

Mayor and city collector sued for saloon license by A. J. Kraetch.

S. Chicago's plea for branch of County Hospital refused. No funds.

Three held to grand jury for robbing Brandonski's junk shop.

Auto hit scaffold at 56th st. J. Motter, 9334 Merrill, and M. Costello, 7317 Kimbark, workmen, injured.

L. Dviorek, 2029 W. 19th, shot and fatally wounded. F. Meed, 2124 W. 18th, accused.

Women's quarters, W. Chicago av. and Rawson police stations closed. Insanitary.

Fred Diense, 1900 N. Halsted, fatally hurt. Car hit wagon.

Sanity Court to move to new Detention Hospital.

Catherine Przewra hit by auto. V. Sitka, driver, arrested.

J. Vanderwendt, chauffeur, and C. A. Jennings, 4406 Winchester av., fined $100. Took employer's car for joy ride.

J. DeSalvo, Chicago Employment Agency, held to grand jury. Operated confidence game.

Mrs. Marie Scheidler, 2028 N. Karlov, suicided. Poison.

James A. Patten's son fined $5. Speeding.

Vivisection probe demanded. College of Physicians and Surgeons charged with cruelty to dogs.

Robert J. Erskine, Waukegan, missing.

Private bank ordinance would insist on $25,000 bond and bank statements.

Reported Georgie Jay has $20,000 verdict in breach of promise suit against "Billy" Sunday's singer.

$25,000 personal damage suit against Rosehill Cemetery brought by Carrie L. Benson.

Julius F. Smietanka assumes office of internal revenue collector, Monday.

Federation of Women's Clubs preparing for big meet. 15,000 expected.

Government policy as to public buildings condemned by Journal of American Institute of Architects.

Judge Sabath quits unmuzzled dog campaign. Judge Olsen ruled procedure illegal.

Health Commissioner Young installing efficiency system. Protest of employees crushed.

Dogs bit 7 Friday.

Warden Chapman denies County Hospital favors certain undertakers. A. A. McCormick wants probe.

NONPARTISANS AT WORK

Men and women gathered at the Hotel Sherman yesterday and formed plans for a nonpartisan campaign this fall. The plan is to select a ticket from the various party nominees and indorse them. It is not believed there will be an attempt made to place a nonpartisan ticket on the ballot at this time.

Allen B. Pond was made chairman.

George E. Cole, Harriet Vittum, Jane Addams, Wiley W. Mills, Sigmund Zeisler, Hoyt King, Mary McDowell, Allen Hoben and Ald. Chas. E. Merriam spoke.

HENRICI'S CASES NONSUITED

Teh Henrici cases have been finally settled. With the desired result already obtained, the restaurant trust was willing to drop the 134 cases of conspiracy and disorderly conduct against the girl pickets, and yesterday in the courts of Judges Bowles and Stewart they were all nonsuited.